INSTITUTIONAL ANALYSTS PRAISE STRONG MOMENTUM AT CRACKER BARREL

SunTrust Issues Report, "Why Investors Should Vote with Management," Echoing Endorsement from ISS

Other Analysts Laud Cracker Barrel's Management, Strategy and Progress

LEBANON, Tenn. (December 19, 2011) – Cracker Barrel Old Country Store, Inc. ("Cracker Barrel" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: CBRL) said today that the Company is extremely pleased to be getting a strong vote of confidence from institutional analysts, who are praising Cracker Barrel's strategy and momentum.

Analysts at SunTrust Robinson Humphrey issued a report on December 16, 2011, entitled "Why Investors Should Vote with Management," recommending that Cracker Barrel shareholders vote FOR ALL of the Company's nominees to the Board of Directors, and reject the election of Sardar Biglari. This recommendation echoes that of ISS, which advised shareholders to support the Company's nominees to the Board by voting the WHITE card at the Company's Annual Meeting tomorrow.

"What happens if Mr. Biglari wins?" asked SunTrust Robinson Humphrey in its report. "Mr. Biglari has not outlined a plan to improve CBRL's competitiveness, but we surmise there would be senior management turnover, which would likely pressure shares."<sup>1</sup>

SunTrust also asked: "What is wrong with Mr. Biglari having a board seat?" Biglari Holdings, the firm wrote, "owns Steak 'n Shake, a 489-unit family-dining chain that competes directly with Cracker Barrel. Mr. Biglari argues other restaurant executives serve on multiple boards, but these are not CEOs of direct competitors and these occurrences are also wrong, in our opinion."

Here's a sampling of other recent analyst commentary:

- Wells Fargo Securities (Dec. 13, 2011): "We were encouraged by CBRL's pre-release of November comparable sales results on December 1, with sales continuing to show sequential monthly improvement and having now shifted in positive territory. We were particularly pleased with the solid comp growth at retail as we enter the key holiday sales period."
- Morgan Keegan (Nov. 29, 2011): "Cochran has challenged her team to improve its operating performance in the face of both stiff industry competition and higher commodity inflation which is projected to hit 5.5-6.5% this fiscal year. We believe this past quarter demonstrated encouraging progress, as both sales and traffic improved through Q1 and EPS handily beating previous Street and MK projections."
- KeyBanc Capital Markets (Nov. 22, 2011): "We remain very positive on our view into the 2H of FY12."
- Miller Tabak + Co. (Nov. 21, 2011): "We expect CBRL shares to outperform peers based on the news of improving November sales trends. We think the nascent turnaround should be a vote of confidence in new CEO Sandra Cochran, as we argue the first fruits of CBRL's turnaround plan outlined on the September earnings call now are beginning to bear fruit."

ISS, the leading proxy advisory service, has already rendered its verdict: "In aggregate, the company's key performance trends, careful executive succession process, and current board renewal efforts strongly suggest that the dissident's arguments are poorly-founded, and that there is not a compelling need for shareholders to effect board change at this time. Shareholders should vote FOR the management slate of nominees on the WHITE card."

Unlike other proxy advisory firms, ISS directly engages with management teams and dissidents, providing the opportunity for ISS to meet and listen to their respective views, and better assess the credibility of their arguments. The Company believes that the Glass Lewis analysis, which did not have the benefit of direct company insight, lacks substantiation, and does not properly consider the ongoing progress Cracker Barrel has made under new leadership.

Cracker Barrel urges shareholders to vote the WHITE card they have received from the Company and to vote FOR ALL eleven of the Company's nominees to its Board of Directors. In order to insure that their vote is received in time, shareholders are urged to vote by telephone or on the Internet by following the instructions on the Company's WHITE card. Cracker Barrel urges shareholders NOT to sign or vote following the instructions on any gold proxy card sent to them by Sardar Biglari. Even a withhold vote for Biglari on a gold proxy card will cancel any previous proxy submitted by shareholders that voted FOR ALL the Company's nominees.

If shareholders have any questions or require assistance with voting their WHITE proxy card, they can contact MacKenzie Partners, Inc., toll-free, at (800) 322-2885.
